

ATESEA Theological Union

(formerly, the South East Asia Graduate School of Theology)

offers the degree of Doctor of Theology with the mission to enrich the intellectual and spiritual development of Asian theologians, responsive to the emerging opportunities facing the theological schools in Asia and beyond.

Core Values

Academic Excellence. ATU offers quality theological education for the professional development of teachers for the theology faculties and of leaders for Christian ministry in the church and society, under the supervision of competent professors both within and outside Asia.

Contextuality and Inter-Contextuality. ATU encourages the construction of contextual and Asia-oriented theology by providing opportunities for research and reflection on the significance of the Christian faith in dialogue with other living faiths, cultures and traditions of Asia and contemporary challenges.

Community and Diversity. ATU provides opportunities for the interchange of the graduate students and faculty members among the different participating Centers for Theological Excellence of ATESEA, thus enhancing regional consciousness and fellowship across the barriers of race, cultures and genders.

ATU administers the D.Theol program in any of the following Centers for Theological Excellence (CTE) recognized by ATESEA:

1. Adventist International Institute of Advanced Studies (Silang, Cavite, Philippines)
2. Divinity School of Chung Chi College, The Chinese University of Hong Kong
